#NOLES NUMBERS

304
The number of yards quarterback Sean Maguire threw for against Clemson in his first career start last season. It was the second-most passing yards allowed in 2014 by the Tigers, who ranked No. 2 in the nation in pass defense (157.4 ypg) and No. 1 in total defense (260.8 ypg). Only three QBs surpassed 200 yards passing versus Clemson in 2014.

3
Running back Dalvin Cook will bring a streak of three consecutive 100-yard rushing games into the 2014 season after capping his outstanding freshman campaign by running for 144 yards (Florida), 177 yards (Georgia Tech) and 103 yards (Oregon).

24
The Seminoles have won 24 consecutive games against ACC opponents, including three straight ACC Championship Game victories. FSU's last loss to a conference foe came on Oct. 6, 2012 (at NC State).

51
The Seminoles return 51 players who appeared in at least one game in 2014.

28
Kicker Roberto Aguayo has had the same holder - punter Cason Beatty - in all 28 games he has played in his career. Beatty brings the most starts (42) of any Seminole into the 2015 season.

31
As a true freshman in 2014, Dalvin Cook proved that he could "carry" the Florida State offense. He led FSU to its third straight ACC Championship Game victory by totaling 31 carries for 177 yards and a score versus Georgia Tech. The 31 carries were the most by a Nole running back in over 12 years - since Greg Jones had 31 totes versus Miami in 2002.

4
The Florida State defense is projected to have four starters that are fifth-year seniors in 2015. Linebacker Terrance Smith (20 starts), safety Tyler Hunter (20), defensive tackle Derrick Mitchell (10) and defensive tackle Nile Lawrence-Stample (8) all will be redshirt seniors in 2015 and have extensive starting experience.

91.5
The Florida State offense ranked eighth in the country in red zone conversion percentage at 91.5 percent in 2014. The Seminoles scored 54 times on 59 trips to the red zone (35 TDs and 19 FGs). FSU ranked first in the nation in red zone percentage in 2013 (97.2%, 71 of 73) and eighth in 2012 (91.6%, 65 of 71). The Noles' defense was stout in the red zone in 2014 too, allowing opponents to score on just 75 percent of their red zone trips (39 of 52) which ranked 19th in the country.

DROPPIN' NOLE-EDGE

THIS IS WHAT'S COOKIN'
Freshman running back Dalvin Cook had the most productive season by a first-year running back in FSU history in 2015. The Miami, Fla., native:
- Rushed for an FSU freshman-record 1,008 yards.
- Totaled five 100-yard rushing games - the most by a Seminole since Greg Jones in 2002 (also five).
- Collected ACC Championship Game MVP honors (31 carries for 177 yards and one touchdown).
- Surpassed 100 yards in the final three games.

RAMSEY A VERSATILE STAR
Junior defensive back Jalen Ramsey has been a bona fide star during his first two seasons, starting all 28 games and collecting All-America honors in 2014. The Smyrna, Tenn., native:
- Became the first true freshman to start at cornerback for FSU since Deion Sanders in 1985.
- Collected Freshman All-America honors in 2013 before garnering USA Today First Team All-America accolades in 2014.
- Started at the "Star" nickelback position in 2014 where he tied for second in the ACC with 12 pass break-ups and finished second among DBs with 9.5 tackles for loss.
- Won the long jump title at the 2015 ACC Indoor Track & Field Championships before finishing fourth at the 2015 NCAA National Championships in March.

SMITH SEEKS ALL-ACC 3-PEAT
Redshirt senior linebacker Terrance Smith will look to become the first Seminole linebacker since 1997 to capture All-ACC honors three times.
- Smith captured All-ACC second team accolades after totaling 87 tackles while battling injuries in 2014.
- He earned All-ACC honorable mention honors during FSU's national championship run in 2013.
- Daryl Bush is the last Nole LB to three-peat as an All-ACC honoree, collecting second team honors in 1997, 1996 and 1995.
- NFL Hall of Famer Derrick Brooks was also a three-time first team selection from 1992-94.

JOHNSON ANCHORS LINE
Sophomore left tackle Roderick Johnson started the final five games the 2014 season and was a dominant presence at one of the most important positions on offense. "Big Rod" ...
- Captured freshman All-America honors from USA Today, Athlon Sports, College Football News and Campus Insiders.
- Helped the Seminoles total two of their highest offensive outputs in the ACC Championship Game (488) and Rose Bowl (528).
- Paved the way for Dalvin Cook to rush for over 100 yards over the final three games and protected the blindside of quarterback Jameis Winston, who had three 300-yard passing games in his starts.

ANDREWS MAKES THE PICK
Junior safety Nate Andrews will look to lead FSU in interceptions for the third straight year in 2015. The playmaker from Fairhope, Ala., led FSU with three picks in 2014 after collecting a team-best four interceptions in 2013.
- Pat Watkins was the last Nole to lead the team in interceptions in three straight seasons, sharing the picks title in 2003, 2004 and 2005.
- Deion Sanders also led the Noles in interceptions for three straight seasons, outright leading in 1986 (4) and sharing the lead in 1987 (4) and 1988 (5).

FISHER LEADS ALL COACHES
Head Coach Jimbo Fisher leads the nation in victories per season among current head football coaches. Fisher is averaging a remarkable 11.6 wins per season during his five years as a head coach, placing him atop the list. Only Washington's Chris Petersen (11.11), Ohio State's Urban Meyer (10.85) and Oklahoma's Bob Stoops (10.5) join Fisher in averaging over 10 wins per season.

Average Victories Per Season Current Head Coaches
(minimum five full seasons)

Pl.	Name, School	Avg. Wins/Yr
1.	Jimbo Fisher, Florida State	11.60
2.	Chris Petersen, Boise State	11.11
3.	Urban Meyer, Ohio State	10.85
4.	Bob Stoops, Oklahoma	10.50
5.	Mark Richt, Georgia	9.71

A WELCOME RETURN
Redshirt junior kicker Roberto Aguayo was so productive in his first two seasons (2013 Lou Groza winner, 2014 consensus All-American) that some thought he could actually leave school early for the NFL Draft. Instead, the Mascotte, Fla., native returns in 2015 and will look to continue to make a case for being one of the greatest placekickers in college football history. Aguayo...
- Will enter the 2015 season as the NCAA's all-time leader in field goal percentage at 92.3 percent (48 of 52). No kicker in NCAA history has ever finished their career with a field goal percentage above 90 percent.
- Has made 149 consecutive PATs - just 11 away from Luke Manget's ACC record of 160.
- Already ranks eighth in school history with 293 points and is one point away from tying Warrick Dunn for seventh.

DID YOU CATCH HIS DEBUT?
Sophomore wide receiver Travis Rudolph had one of the most productive freshman seasons ever by a Seminole wide receiver in 2014, totaling 38 receptions for 555 yards and four touchdowns. The West Palm Beach, Fla., native:
- Had the fifth-most receiving yards ever by a freshman wide receiver in FSU history.
- His debut season numbers were similar to All-American Rashad Greene's from 2011. Greene, who Rudolph is often compared to, had 38 catches for 596 yards and seven touchdowns as a freshman.

POSITON SWITCH
Junior Ryan Green has moved to cornerback after spending the first two seasons of his career at running back. Green:
- Totaled 39 carries for 194 yards (5.0 ypc) and one touchdown as a reserve running back in 2013-14.
- Was a four-star prospect at both running back and cornerback at St. Petersburg Catholic High School and was recruited by many schools as an athlete.
- Under Jimbo Fisher, several Seminoles have had success moving positions – most notably Xavier Rhodes and Cameron Erving. Rhodes entered FSU as a wide receiver, but eventually starred at cornerback and was a first round pick in the 2013 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings. Erving began his career at defensive tackle before moving to left tackle. He moved to center midway through his senior year and wrapped up his career as a two-time All-American and two-time Jacobs Trophy honoree.

HEAD COACH JIMBO FISHER | 6TH SEASON

It didn't take long for Florida State head coach Jimbo Fisher to restore the Seminoles back to the top of the college football world. The sixth-year head coach followed up an undefeated national championship season in 2013 with another outstanding season in 2014, leading FSU to the first-ever College Football Playoff Semifinals at the Rose Bowl and capturing the Noles' third consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference Championship.

Fisher guided Florida State to a 13-1 record in 2014 and completed a stretch where the Seminoles won 29 consecutive games – the most in ACC and FSU history. He has taken FSU to five straight bowl games and won four, including victories at the 2014 BCS National Championship and the 2013 Orange Bowl. Overall, Fisher has compiled 58 wins and his .841 winning percentage is by far the best in ACC history.

Fisher came to Florida State as offensive coordinator in 2007 and was promoted to head coach in 2010. He quickly found success at the helm of the Seminoles winning 10 games in two of his first three years and capturing a perfect 3-0 bowl record before the historic 2013 campaign that saw the Seminoles set the national record for points in a season (723), while leading the nation in scoring defense (12.1).

Along the way, FSU had 17 All-ACC selections, six All-America honorees, and had players capture the Lou Groza Award, Rimington Trophy, Davey O'Brien Quarterback Award and the Heisman Trophy. The 2013 season culminated with Florida State completing an 18-point comeback to defeat Auburn, 34-31, in the national championship game at the Rose Bowl.

The Seminoles became the sixth team ever to win 14 games and the first ACC team to accomplish the feat. Fisher was named AFCA Regional Coach of the Year for Region 1 in 2013 and was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year and the Bobby Bowden Coach of the Year awards.

Florida State continued that success in 2014, winning its first 13 games before falling to Oregon in the Rose Bowl. FSU had 17 players capture All-ACC honors for a second straight season, while senior Nick O'Leary won the John Mackey Award given to the nation's best tight end. O'Leary joined senior right guard Tre' Jackson, redshirt sophomore kicker Roberto Aguayo, redshirt senior offensive lineman Cameron Erving and sophomore safety Jalen Ramsey as First Team All-Americans. Fisher was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson and Paul Bear Bryant Coach of the Year awards again.

Known for his success in developing quarterbacks, Fisher has tutored two first-round NFL draft picks at the position at FSU – current Oakland Raider Christian Ponder (12th overall pick, 2011) and current Buffalo Bill EJ Manuel (16th overall, 2013) – and guided Seminoles signal caller Jameis Winston to one of the greatest seasons ever by a collegiate quarterback in 2013. Winston became the youngest player ever to win the Heisman Trophy, while collecting several other awards in addition to consensus All-America honors. In 2014, Winston led the ACC in nearly every passing category and was an All-ACC First Team selection for a second straight year.

Overall, Fisher has seen 25 Seminoles get drafted into the NFL in his first four seasons, including a Florida State two-year record 18 combined in 2013-14 which is tied for the most draftees during that period. Wide receiver Kelvin Benjamin (28th pick) became the fifth Nole drafted in the first round under Fisher.

A native of Clarksburg, W.Va., Fisher graduated from Salem College (W.Va.) in 1989. Throughout his 27-year collegiate coaching career, Fisher was an offensive coordinator or quarterbacks coach at Samford, Auburn, Cincinnati and LSU before coming to the Seminoles.

He and his wife Candi have two sons, Trey and Ethan.

Candi – Fisher's wife of over 21 years – serves as chairwoman of Kidz1stFund, a national fund created by the Fishers in 2011 to raise awareness and research funds to find a cure for Fanconi anemia, a very rare blood disease that affects many including their youngest son Ethan. Kidz1stFund has already donated $2.8 million towards FA research thanks to a family of supporters.

(11/12/12) Georgia Tech 35
Charlotte, N.C. (ACC Championship Game)

- No. 4 Florida State earned its third-straight ACC Championship and a league-record 15th overall in program history with a 37-35 win over No. 11 Georgia Tech. The Seminoles have now won 29 consecutive games, tied for the 12th longest streak in NCAA history.
- Freshman running back Dalvin Cook earned Most Valuable Player honors as he set career highs in both rushes (31) and rushing yards (177) against the Yellow Jackets. He also posted 43 receiving yards and his 220 yards from scrimmage made him the first Seminole with over 200 all-purpose yards since Rashad Greene recorded 203 against Oklahoma State on August 30, 2014. Cook now owns the FSU freshman rushing record with 905 yards on the ground.
- Senior wide receiver Rashad Greene recorded the 15th 100-yard receiving game of his career and eighth of the season. He finished with seven catches for 123 yards and two touchdowns. Greene passed Duke's Conner Vernon (2009-12) to become the ACC career leader with 3,771 receiving yards.
- Junior linebacker Reggie Northrup led the team with 12 tackles, including 1.0 tackles for loss, marking the sixth time he recorded double-digit tackles this season. He now has 113 tackles on the season, which is the most since 2002 from Michael Boulware (127) and Kendyll Pope (131).
